

Give Your Guests the Royal Treatment at Your Next Event at the Boch Center

Experience the Art of Entertaining

Two Theatres. Endless Possibilities.

Located in the fashionable Downtown Boston theatre district, the Boch Center Wang Theatre is the perfect venue for a variety of special events and meetings. Restored to its 1920s elegance, this marvelous historic landmark is able to accommodate intimate gatherings of twenty to full-scale events for several thousand.

Picture your next special event, wedding, bar mitzvah, or corporate meeting in the spectacular Grand Lobby, with its one hundred foot domed ceiling, grand staircase, fifteen-foot chandeliers, and opulent decor. Modeled after the Palace of Versailles, the Grand Lobby will make your guests feel like royalty.

Consider a new product introduction or a national sales incentive meeting in the opulent 3,600-seat theatre. As one of the largest stages in the country, the theatre offers a unique opportunity to hold an elegant dinner or fundraising gala right on stage.

During a pre-performance reception, watch the crowd stream into the Grand Lobby from your perch at an intimate cafe table in the Amaral Court or Loge Promenade – each an ideal setting for a gathering of up to 90 people.

The Boch Center Shubert Theatre is considered ‘The Little Princess’ of Boston’s theatres. The Shubert Theatre is a sophisticated setting for a corporate meeting and the stage is intimate enough for all types of celebrations.

We hope you consider the Boch Center for an upcoming event. We welcome the opportunity to speak with you in greater detail about your special event needs.
